

Five programs. One mission.

From a 3-day sprint to a 12-week founder quarter — the practical AI academy democratizing AI builders across Europe and beyond.

"Come with an idea. Leave with a working AI project."

Three principles, no compromise.

Every program in Global AI Assembly is built on these non-negotiable foundations. They are what make us different — and what make our graduates effective from day one.

You build, you don't watch.

Every day ends with a tangible artifact — a workflow, a prototype, a deployed agent. No theory without immediate execution.

Your project is your final exam.

No multiple-choice tests. No essays. You graduate when your AI project works in the real world and your peers validate it.

Your voice shapes the future.

Every cohort feeds Pillar 2 (public voice) and Pillar 3 (civic reports). You're not just learning AI — you're contributing to global AI governance.

THE THREE PILLARS

A flywheel that locks democratization in place.

Education creates AI builders who contribute directly to the economy. Public Voice turns every learner into a co-author of AI's future. Civic Reports carry that voice to governments, companies, and international bodies — who in turn support and scale this new model. Each pillar feeds and locks the next. A closed chain. A virtuous flywheel.
